

Dear Lord,
Every moment of every day
Remind us just how much you love us:
Take our breath away and give us a sense of the enormity
 the cost the spontaneity
Of your love for us and everyone you've made.

Holy Lord,
Reduce our babbling to silence
As we contemplate the mystery of your love.
And help us, in wonder love and praise
To adore you, our maker and our friend.

Loving Lord,
Disturb us into an awareness
Of the needs of others.
And, as we serve our neighbours, help us to enjoy to sense the privilege to discover the freedom
That comes from loving those around us.

We address these simple prayers to you our infinite God who, though Lord of all, will not despise our littleness. We are bold to do this through Jesus Christ our Saviour who gave his life for us and goes on believing in us to the very end.

Amen.

I've forgotten where and why I wrote this little prayer. I've used it over and over again.
